(2) In this application following reliefs have been sought to be granted:

- (a) To set aside and quash the impugned Letter No. PEN/600/Non-Pen/097539 dated 27/02/2015 issued by AK Meelu Captain (IN), Sr. Staff Officer (Pension) for Logistics Officer-In-Charge.
- (b) To declare that Regulation 269 of the Navy (Pension) Regulation 1964 to the extent refers to "if required" and "Indian Fleet Reserve Regulations" as arbitrary, unfair, unreasonable, discriminatory and ultravires of the Navy Act, 1957 and Article 14 of the Constitution of India.

- (c) To direct the respondents to grant pension to the applicant by taking into consideration the reservist service of 10 years w.e.f. 21/07/1993 and/or alternatively direct the respondents to grant special pension in terms of Pension Regulations for the Navy 1964 with all consequential benefits along with interest @ 10% p.a.
- (d) To direct the respondents to produce the original records relating to the case at the time of hearing.
- (e) Costs of this application be awarded.
- (f) Any other and further reliefs as this Tribunal deem fit and proper may also be granted to the applicant.

(3) The applicant, however, has filed simple application on 18/09/2024 for seeking withdrawal of the original application, as according to him, the relief which have been sought, stands granted. He has also enclosed the copy of PPO along with the application. The applicant is also present in person and states that in view of his grievances stood already resolved, he is no more interested to prosecute this application any further. Being so, the OA is disposed of as not pressed.

Miscellaneous Application(s), if any, pending will also stand disposed of accordingly.
